

Stamping off or also known as Repetition Stamping

This technique allows you to achieve different shades of one color, because you only ink the stamp once and then stamp the image several times to achieve lighter colors. This technique works best with bright bold colors and most often on light cardstocks, like Whisper White or Very Vanilla.